The screenshot shows the 'Create your ORCID iD' registration page, which is step 2 of 3. The progress bar at the top indicates that 'Personal data' is completed (1), 'Security and notifications' is the current step (2), and 'Visibility and terms' is the final step (3). The main form area is titled 'Create your ORCID iD' and 'This is step 2 of 3'. It contains a 'Password' field with a help icon, followed by three checked requirements: '8 or more characters', '1 letter or symbol', and '1 number'. Below this is a 'Confirm password' field. The 'Notification settings' section explains that ORCID sends email notifications about items related to the account, security, and privacy, including requests from ORCID member organizations for permission to update the record. It also offers an option to receive quarterly emails about new ORCID features and tips, which is currently unchecked. A note states that to receive these emails, the user's primary email address must be verified. At the bottom, there are 'GO BACK' and 'NEXT' buttons.

Notification settings

ORCID sends email notifications about items related to your account, security, and privacy, including requests from ORCID member organizations for permission to update your record, and changes made to your record by those organizations.

You can also choose to receive emails from us about new features and tips for making the most of your ORCID record.

Please send me quarterly emails about new ORCID features and tips. To receive these emails, you will also need to verify your primary email address.

After you've registered, you can change your notification settings at any time in the account settings section of your ORCID record.

Visibility settings

Your ORCID ID connects with your ORCID record that can contain links to your research activities, affiliations, awards, other versions of your name, and more. You control this content and who can see it.

By default, what visibility should be given to new items added to your ORCID Record?

- Everyone (87% of users choose this)
- Trusted Organizations (5% of users choose this)
- Only me (8% of users choose this)
